506–98 141Miss196, 106S524.

506–98½–New. An entire transcript on appeal under the alternative method should not be stricken because a portion of the evidence was taken in the absence of the official stenographer after the court had set aside the submission of the case where the parties knew of, and failed to object to, the absence of the reporter and the court certified to the correctness of the portion including the proceeding down to the first submission, and such portion is sufficient for a determination on the merits. 200Cal 261, 252P727 (objectionable portion severable from remainder).

506–98½–New. In such case the portion of the transcript showing proceedings taken in the absence of the official stenographer is not subject to motion to strike in the absence of prejudice to the moving party. 200Cal 261, 252P727 (presumption that moving party was benefited).

506–98¼–New. Failure of the record to show that statutory notice to the stenographer to transcribe the minutes was filed is not ground for striking the stenographer's transcript where timely notice was shown to have been actually given and the clerk's certificate shows the filing of the original notice with him. 149Miss517, 111S457.

507–8⅓–New. Where the certificate to a bill of exceptions cannot be amended to conform with the statute, the bill must be stricken. 50Nev366, 261P652.

507–8¼–New. A bill of exceptions cannot be stricken ex mero motu for not being signed within the time allowed, in the absence of motion to strike. 22 AlaA226, 114S285.

507–8½–New. In some jurisdictions failure to file the note of the order in which the testimony was introduced is not ground for striking out the evidence. 153Miss545, 120S822.

507–8⅓–New. Where the only evidence introduced on the trial was depositions and instruments of written evidence, such evidence will not be stricken from the record for failure to notify the stenographer attending court, who merely made a note of the order in which the evidence was introduced. 153Miss 545, 120S822.

507–8½–New. A motion to strike a transcript should be denied, where appellant was unable to procure a complete transcript sooner because of the reporter's delay and tendered a completed transcript with his opposition to the motion. 130 Or444, 277P722.

507–8⅓–New. The expedient of withdrawing a motion to expunge from the record certain matter as being scandalous and impertinent after the motion had been favorably decided may not be successfully resorted to to prevent a decision on an appeal of the important question involved. 225AppDiv92, 232 NYS282.

507–8⅓–New. 1092–66½–New. Court of appeals, where the appellate division substituted new findings for special term findings, will determine whether the substituted findings are sustained by evidence. 245NY260, 157NE130.

1092–66⅓–New. Under Civ. Pract. Act § 589, the court of appeals can review only questions of fact where the appellate division on reversal makes new findings of fact and renders final judgment thereon. 242NY99, 151NE144.

1092–66¼–New. Plaintiff, appealing from the appellate division's judgment ordering a new trial and giving a stipulation for judgment absolute, has the burden of showing that there was no question of fact justifying reversal, and that as matter of law plaintiff was entitled to judgment. 248NY272, 162NE76.

1092–66⅕–New. When Appellate Division makes new findings and renders final judgment or order, Court of Appeals may review facts so found and decision thereon. 254NY128, 172NE265.
